The Freedom Restoration Covenant

The Vision for the Freedom Restoration Covenant

How it was Birthed

In January of 2025, during the time when assemblies were being birthed across America, Karen and I were actively training the People of Pennsylvania how to set up lawful assemblies. We began hearing many stories of turbulence occurring among members of assemblies. We were experiencing turbulence in the Community Safety Group of Lancaster County, as well.

I believe God was speaking to me about the root of this turbulence for some time, although I was just holding it in my heart until it became clear what He was saying. However, when the call came from a neighboring county to hold a meeting to discuss how to handle the symptoms that were arising (everywhere), I felt impelled in my spirit to voice what I was hearing and seeing.

I knew in my spirit that dealing with the symptoms would keep us busy for an untold amount of time while the root cause of those symptoms lay buried out of sight, continuously producing the turbulence. With the root unchecked, what hope was there of coming to a peaceful closure? I called instead, for a meeting to discuss and address foundational weaknesses and strengths and for a document to be written that would establish or reestablish principles by which we govern.

The meeting/s were called and a number of people from Lancaster and Chester County readily agreed to contribute to this important work. I believe the Freedom Restoration Covenant was God's idea. Although he spoke to my spirit, insomuch that I voiced it, I believe he also spoke it to the spirits of the people who helped write the Covenant. How else would they have accepted the call? Therefore, it is not at all about "I", but rather, "We".

We were tasked with the historical assignment of reestablishing the values, virtues, and principles upon which our founding fathers had built America. We did not have to "reinvent the wheel", but we were tasked with uncovering treasure that had been buried for many years. We were to dust it off, polish it to its full shine and re-present it in a new light. This, hopefully, will catch the attention of those who generally have difficulty absorbing what they hear or read, in the familiar Declaration of Independence.

God's Guidance in the Process

When we accepted the call, we did not know what the document would look like, or what we would write. We trusted that God would lead and direct us and He surely did. Pennsylvania Pioneers has an ongoing Book Study for educational purposes. At the time of the writing of the document we were reading about the true history of America and Pennsylvania. Many times, we would read the specific and exact words and topics in these books that we were ready to implement in the next meeting to work on the document. God provided the inspiration, the downloads, and direction every step of the way through everyone participating in the writing of the document. It truly feels like His idea; not our own.

The Invitation

America has been in spiritual decline for hundreds of years. During this time America experienced serious demoralization, God and prayer being removed from schools, intentional division sown amongst us, mind control programming, etc., all while being exposed to radiation and chemical poisoning. Can we really expect the People of America to suddenly recover from these abuses and begin to work together cohesively without turbulence? Moreover, how should we expect it when the People of America have lost sight of the foundational virtues and principles by which to govern? This, of course, was the enemy's agenda, in order to control us.

Through this we developed an identity crisis and therefore a self-governance crisis, and therefore a crisis of governing in our townships, counties, and state. These crisis need to be addressed before we can expect to see the full beauty of what we are attempting to do through county assemblies. This requires us to take individual responsibility.

The vision for this Covenant is to give people an opportunity to remember how we broke covenant with God and how to renew covenant with God. The necessary keys are provided to restore America back to a nation of Freedom through the power of agreement. Our agreement holds each one of us accountable to self-govern by the virtues and principles derived from the "Laws of Nature and Nature's God."

In a world where people have become accustomed to blindly following rules or following no rules but their own, the Freedom Restoration Covenant offers life. A life that is governed by principles. When governed by principles, individuals take ownership of their decisions and actions, actively considering the underlying values rather than simply following external mandates. Living by principles encourages deeper reflection on ethical implications, promoting personal growth and a stronger moral compass. When we live our lives guided by virtues and principles from the Laws of Nature and Nature's God, we acknowledge that we answer to a Higher Power and Higher Law than that of our own. This holds each one of us accountable and gives us a foundation to return to and align with when we find ourselves dealing with turbulence.

This is an invitation for all of us to make our lives better by self-governing well. May we all reap the benefits and blessings of living in covenant with God!

Humbly submitted,
