

Freedom Restoration Covenant

Four Keys to Restoring America

Reestablishing Virtues of Self-Governance

America “was created in covenant with Creator God to be governed by His Laws, the Laws of Nature and of Natures’s God.”¹

Our founding fathers recognized the Ultimate Government that was ordained by the Ultimate Governor. (In other words; “Laws of Nature and Nature’s God”²). They also recognized the Blessing of Covenant with the Ultimate Authority, and the maxim of law: He who creates, controls.

In reverence to their Creator, they established a government in accordance with the Ultimate Government; based on virtues and principles of the “Laws of Nature and Nature’s God”³.

The Covenant was for freedom. God wanted His people to be free, but when they didn’t honor their part of the covenant, bondage and slavery resulted. Deuteronomy 28:12 and 13 (NASB); “The Lord will open for you His good storehouse, the heavens, to give rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand; and you will lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. The Lord will make you the head and not the tail, and you only will be above and not be underneath, if you listen to the commandments of the Lord your God, which I charge you today, to observe them carefully.”⁴

Here in America, slavery existed even at the dawn of the early European settlements, because the settlers brought with them the practice of slavery. An exception to that, was the Pilgrims, who lived by virtuous principles. They brought no slaves with them and made a compact with the native people as a self-governing document. This document was called the Mayflower Compact (1620). This is when the pilgrims put God in the center of their government and agreed to “just and equal laws”⁵. Unfortunately, this belief and set of virtues did not pass on to all the rest of the New World. At the founding of our nation the subject of slavery was discussed, lamented, and argued about, but not disallowed. The result was that slavery continued in the areas of this nation where it was believed that one group of people can own and control another group of people. “It is recorded in history that the debate among the delegates of the Continental Congress in 1789, concluded with the Founding Fathers having agreed that the Slave Trade would end in 20 years after the adoption of the Constitution”⁶. The “decision to postpone the confrontation with the slavery issue, because it would die a natural death, had proven to be disastrous”⁷. The avoidance strategy failed. Even the American Civil War (1861-1865) did not resolve the issue. The 13th Amendment (1865) was intended to dissolve all slavery. However, it was removed, and the 14th Amendment of 1868 made all the American people citizens (slaves).

The morality and virtues of the lawmakers and governmental officers were not strong enough to prevent or reverse slavery.

In order to address this breach of covenant, we need a backbone and an inner moral compass of virtues.

“It is in the man of piety and inward principle, that we may expect to find the uncorrupted patriot, the useful citizen [American], and the invincible soldier.”⁸

- John Witherspoon

“When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people”⁹ ... to consider the prevailing circumstances in which they find themselves, to discern how they arrived at this juncture in time and... “to” ...

Key #1. Remember the Covenant; rediscover the treasures created and gifted from the founding fathers

“If we are to go forward, we must go back and rediscover those precious values - that all reality hinges on moral foundations and that all reality has spiritual control.”¹⁰

- Martin Luther King Jr.

We self-govern by our choice of who governs us (virtue/anti-virtue).

Key #2. Repent; turn from the slavery mentality to the sovereign mentality

... “dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation”¹¹...

“The government of God is the only government which will hold society, against depravity within and temptation without; and this it must do by the force of its own law written upon the heart. ...There is no safety for republics but in self-government, under the influence of a holy heart, swayed by the government of God.”¹²

- Lyman Beecher

... “We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. __That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, __That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, (emphasis added) as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness”¹³...

“He, therefore, is the truest friend to the liberty of his country who tries most to promote its virtue, and who, as far as his power and influence extend, will not suffer a man to be chosen into any office of power and trust who is not a wise and virtuous man.”¹⁴

- Samuel Adams

... “Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. __Such has been the patient sufferance of”¹⁵ ... [the American People]; “and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government”¹⁶...

“While people are virtuous, they cannot be subdued; but when once they lose their Virtue they will be ready to surrender their liberties to the first external or internal invader If Virtue and Knowledge are diffused among the People, they will never be enslaved. This will be their great Security.”¹⁷

- Samuel Adams

... “The history of...”¹⁸ [the de facto “government”] ... “is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.”¹⁹

The de facto “government”, which in reality is a for-profit corporation, has:

Issued Birth Certificates and Social Security Numbers to enslave us
Captured us through licensing our personal and business activities
Issued fake titles for land and automobiles
Levied heavy taxes on the people
Imposed mortgages and loans for their personal profit
Threatened us with fines, penalties, and imprisonment
Exploited us and ruled unjustly against us in kangaroo courts
Poisoned our water, air, land, and food
Kidnapped children through child protection agencies
Stolen our elections
Held babies, children, and adults captive for human and sex slavery and organ harvesting
Pushed transgender policies, ideologies, and medical tyranny
Indoctrinated us with propaganda through the news media
Pushed for sanctuary cities for illegal aliens
Implemented weather modification strategies
Used energy weapons to take lives and land
Promoted murder of the unborn
Moved the New World Order agenda forward
Allowed widespread drug trafficking and protected the drug cartels
Promoted crime against the innocent
Used mind control tactics and MK-Ultra
Protected and practiced satanic ritual abuse

Edward Mandell House had this to say in a private meeting with Woodrow Wilson (President, 1913-1921)

From the private papers of Woodrow Wilson:

"[Very] soon, every American will be required to register their biological property in a National system designed to keep track of the people and that will operate under the ancient system of pledging. By such methodology, we can compel people to submit to our agenda, which will affect our security as a charge back for our fiat paper currency. Every American will be forced to register or suffer not being able to work and earn a living. They will be our Chattel and we will hold the security interest over them forever, by operation of the law merchant under the scheme of secured transactions. Americans, by unknowingly or unwittingly delivering the bills of lading to us will be rendered bankrupt and insolvent, forever to remain economic slaves through taxation, secured by their pledges. They will be stripped of their rights and given a commercial value designed to make us a profit and they will be none the wiser, for not one man in a million could ever figure our plans and, if by accident one or two would figure it out, we have in our arsenal plausible deniability. After all, this is the only logical way to fund government, by floating liens and debt to the registrants in the form of benefits and privileges. This will inevitably reap to us huge profits beyond our wildest expectations and leave every American a contributor to this fraud which we will call "Social Insurance." Without realizing it, every American will insure us for any loss we may incur and in this manner; every American will unknowingly be our servant, however begrudgingly. The people will become helpless and without any hope for their redemption and, we will employ the high office of the President of our dummy corporation to foment this plot against America."²⁰

“We, therefore”²¹(emphasis added), the People on the land known as Pennsylvania, America, *“appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by the authority of the good People”*²² of this land, decree we have become the wiser and are no longer helpless and without hope! We shall no longer be slaves, but instead a Free People, which is our Rightful Inheritance! We *“solemnly publish and declare”*²³ that we take full responsibility to be vigilant, to self-govern, and govern affairs in our townships, county, and state by principles based on virtue to *“secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity”*²⁴.

“Freedom is not free: the price you must pay for freedom is eternal vigilance.”²⁵
-Thomas Jefferson

“What is liberty without wisdom and without virtue? It is the greatest of all possible evils; for it is folly, vice, and madness, without restraint.”²⁶
-Edmund Burke

Key #3. Reestablish Virtues of Self-Governance

Trustworthiness	Integrity	Commitment
Respectability	Merit	Honor
Moral Excellence	Faithfulness	Prudence
Accountability	Justice	Kindness
Responsibility	Discretion	Love
Intention to Serve	Faith	Compassion
Co-operation	Honesty	Purity

We, the People on the land known as Pennsylvania, America, purpose to self-govern according to the above listed virtues derived from the *“Laws of Nature and Nature’s God”*²⁷ and by the authority vested in us by our Creator, we purpose to govern the affairs in our townships, county, and state, by the Principles established by our founding fathers that were based upon these virtues, and passed down to us, revised for current day America, (2025) and listed below.

Key #4. Reestablish Principles of Governance

“A general dissolution of Principles and Manners will more surely overthrow the Liberties of America than the whole Force of the Common Enemy.”²⁸
- Samuel Adams

Reestablishing Principles of Governance

Every Government, governing body, or organization, must define by what authority they govern.

1. The only reliable basis for sound government and just human relations is Natural Law.
2. Without virtue, the government of a free people cannot be maintained.
3. A free people cannot maintain a Republic unless they remain virtuous and morally strong.
4. One of the most promising methods of securing a virtuous people is to be virtuous, and to raise virtuous children by example.
5. Another most promising method of securing a virtuous people is to elect virtuous and morally stable leaders.
6. All things are created by God.
7. All mankind are created by God, therefore, upon Him all mankind are equally dependent, and to Him they are equally responsible.
8. All mankind are created equal.
9. The proper role of government is to secure and protect equal rights, not provide equal things.
10. All mankind are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights.
11. To protect the rights of mankind, God has revealed certain principles of Divine law.
12. The God-given right to govern is vested in the sovereign authority of the whole people.²⁹
13. It is the right and the duty of the people to alter or abolish a government which has become tyrannical.
14. The united States of America shall be a Republic.³⁰
15. A Constitution protects the people from the frailties of their rulers.
16. Life, liberty, and freedoms are secure only so long as the rights of property are secure.

17. The highest level of prosperity occurs when there is a free-market economy and a minimum of government regulations.³¹
18. There are 6 (six) branches of government: assemblies, militia, grand jury, legislative, judicial, and executive.
19. A system of checks and balances prevents the abuse of power by the different branches of government.
20. The unalienable rights of the people are most likely to be preserved if the principles of governance are set forth in a written Constitution.
21. There are only very limited and carefully defined powers that We the People delegate to the government; all others are retained by the People.
22. Efficiency and dispatch require that the government operate according to the will of the majority, but constitutional provisions must be made to protect the rights of the minority.³²
23. Strong local self-governance is the keystone to preserving the rights of the people.
24. A free people are governed by law and not by the whims of men.
25. A free people can only survive as a Republic with education which encourages evolution of our connection to and understanding of God consciousness.
26. Our mutually beneficial relations with all nations are based on peace, transparency, and creative collaboration.
27. The core unit which determines the strength of any nation, is the family; therefore the government fosters and protects the integrity of families.
28. The burden of debt is as destructive to the freedom of the people as subjugation by conquest.
29. The united States of America has a manifest destiny to be an example and a blessing to the entire race.

“For nations want a precedent, and till vice and corrupt manners be impartially rebuked and punished, and till virtue and sobriety be cherished, the wrath of God will hang over nations. I do, therefore, desire the Lord’s wisdom to guide me, and those that may be concerned with me, that we may do the thing that is truly wise and just.”³³

- William Penn

On March 5, 1681, Penn closed a letter to his friend, Robert Turner, with these words.

"...My God that has given it (Pennsylvania) me through many difficulties, will, I believe, bless and make it the seed of a nation. I shall have tender care to the government, that it be well laid at first."³⁴

On August 25, 1681, William Penn wrote these words, regarding Pennsylvania.

"For my country, I eyed the Lord, in obtaining it; and more was I drawn inward to look to him, and owe it to his hand and power, than to any other way; I have so obtained it and desire to keep it; that I may not be unworthy of his love; but do that, which may answer his kind Providence, and serve his truth and people: that an example may be set up to the nations: there may be room there, though not here, for such an holy experiment."³⁵
